

Regarding the Wisconsin No Call List, it works just fine. Leave it alone. As a consumer, my living room is not any business's showroom. If I want to buy from anyone, I'll look them up. As for telemarketers, I have resolved to never purchase from anyone who calls me. I don't want to be bothered by them. Keep Wisconsin's list as it is. I suggest the federal law be improved to mirror Wisconsin's